THE PROGRAMME OF SERVICES.

The programme or order of services was arranged by Bishop Whittle and was published in beautiful pamphlet form, a copy of which was placed in the hands of every person present and which will be kept by a great many as a memento of the interesting occasion. The selections were very appropriate to the occasion, as well as to the venerable rector, whose jubilee they commemorated.

The singing was rendered by thirty picked voices from the Petersburg chorus, under the direction of Mr. H. Noltenius, and it was grandly beautiful. The opening voluntary was from Mendelssohn's 5th Paslm. The Te Deum Laudamus (Jackson's) was superbly sing, and the 35th him. "Abide with Me." in its sweet melody and touching impressiveness, brought tears to the eyes of many and swelled the hearts of all.

The whole service was one of thanks. giving, and was conducted by Bishop Whittle throughout. As the good Bishop read with clear and impressive voice the opening sentences: "As thy days so shall thy strength be": "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season": "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord." and other appropriate selections, the eyes of the congregations were turned upon Dr. Gibson—whose face seemed to glow as with a holy light and inspiration—as truly the man whom they closely fitted. All of the selected Psalms and the lessons from the Old and New Testament were significantly appropriate to the occasion.

The tenor solo in the 95th Psalm was sung by Rev. Dr. Kaiser, the Jewish rabbi in this city, in a clear, sweet, musical voice.

Accompanying this and presented at the same time was the Memorial volume containing the address heretofore published in the DESPATCH, and singled by the two Bishops, and all the members of the late Episcopal Council, and many hundreds of Dr. Gibson's Kesponse.

Few men have ever lived in Virginia whose personality was so strongly impressed upon their fellow-men. And Dr. Gibson is no dazzling pripit orator, no controversialist, no seeker after publicity, but a tireless, faithful, never-ceasing worker in the cause of the Master, in behalf of Chirstianity, and in the promotion of the Church of which he has so long been an honored minister. ATTEMPT TO BURN A MILL. Various Notes of the Episcopal Council-Cuykendall Stabbing Case.

Petersburg, Va., May 25.—An attempt was made some time during Friday night to burn the mill of Dr. W. S. Overton, in Sussex City, near Stony Creek. The fire was fortunately discovered in time, however, to prevent damage. Dry peanut vines were kindled under the building.

An effort is now being made to unite three Baptist churches in Chesterfield county—Gill's Grove, Mutoaca, and Woodlawn, at Swift Creek—under one pastor. It is believed that with a little assistance from the State Association a pastor for the three churches can be very well supported.

of Bradford's House and is Killed.
[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
ONANCOCK, VA., May 23.—Captain Sidney Russell, a highly-respected citizen of this county residing near Leemont, left his home last Monday while laboring under mental aberration and wandered down the county as tar as Melfa Station. Arriving there Thursday about dark he went to the house of the Bradford brothers (two young men residing near the station) and finding no one at home he forced an entrance and took pessession. When the Bradford brothers returned home about 10 o'clock that night they found the door strongly barred against them and a strange man inside defiant and apparently full of fight. They forced their way in and found Captain Russell in their bed, but not knowing him they ordered him to get out and leave. This Captain Russell refused to do, when they attempted to put him out; but he managed to get into another room and then proceeded to bar the door against the two young men.

A FATAL WOUND. A FATAL WOUND.

Thinking they had a desperate and dangerous character to deal with one of the young men fired a pistol at the door, hoping in this way to frighten the intruder away. The ball passed through the door and struck Captain Russell in the stomach inflicting what is supposed to be a fatal wound. Captain Russell is about sixty years old and has always been held in the highest esteem by those who knew him. About six months ago he suffered a severe stroke of paralysis, since which time his mind has been unbalanced. Much regret is felt here for the unfortunate victim and the two young men, who at the time of the tragedy did not know who Captain Russell was, and who, although they thought they had a desperate man in their house, did not intend to hurt him.

They will also run a double daily train on the Clinch-Valley division where they only have one each way at present. There will also another train be put on the Radford division, making three each way on that division, which makes ten daily trains to pass this place every day. The rapidly-increasing passenger trade in this section necessitated this step.

PETTY TRIEVES.

PETTY TRIEVES. There seems to be an organized band of petty this ves infesting this town. Several stores have been robbed of pants, shoes, hats, and other articles. They also made a raid on the Hotel Graham a few nights ago and stole a lot of linen, but was detected by the night-watchman and pursued so closely that they dropped the booty and made their escape.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Williamshung, Va., May 25.—To-day being the time set for hearing the habeascorpus proceedings instituted by Mrs. Caroling H. Kearns who claims to be filesely.

confined in the Eastern Insane Asylum here, quite a number of persons assembled at the court-house expecting to hear the case, which promises to be a most sensational one, but they were doomed to disappointment, as the parties interested had requested and obtained consent of the Court, sitting in vacant session, to hear the case privately. The proceedings were carried on at the Spencer House. The petitioner was represented by Robert T. Armistead, of this town, and the respondent, Dr. James D. Moncure, the asylum superintendent, by State-Senator Echols, of Staunton, and K. L. Henly and Bathursh D. Peachy, Esq., of this city.

THE AROUMENTS.

Mr. Armstead argued at length in favor of demurrer to a return made by Dr. Moncure which involved the question whether a pay patient could be admitted on different terms from any other.

Counsel for the respondent argued that the patient was properly detained and quoted from section 1677 of the Code of 1837. Counsel both for the petitioner and respondent quoted a number of leading authorities on insanity.

LEGALLY ADMITTED. THE ARGUMENTS.

The Court, in deciding, stated that it had been very much edified by the counsel in the case, and would find no difficulty in arriving at a conclusion, and would overrule the demurrer to the return as made by the respondent, Dr. Moncure. The Court also decided the party in question had been legally admitted. Counsel for the petitioner took issue on the return, and the evidence will be heard on both sides. The case is attracting much attention here and is going on when this report closed. TEGALLY ADMITTED.

ALEXANDRIA, May 25.—The legal transfer of the St. Mary's Catholic church property here from the Jesuit Order to the Bishop of Richmond was made yesterday, and today at the late mass Bishop Van de Vyver took formal charge of the church. Father Cutler said his first mass here at 11 o'clock, and at this service the Bishop in a few words introduced the new pastor to the congregation, and highly complimented Father O'Kane, the retiring pastor; and when Father O'Kane at the close of the services bid the congregation farewell there was not a dry eye in the whole building.

THE RETIRING PASTOR. A mass-meeting of the congregation was held to night and resolutions of regret at parting with Father O'Kane and others of welcome to the new pastor were adopted. Before the meeting Father O'Kane's councillors presented him with a handsome purse as a mark of the esteem and love with which the people of St. Mary's held him. He leaves on to-morrow morning for Washington, where he will go to St. Aloysius church for a vacation.

Father F. X. McCarthy, of Richmond, who succeeds Father Chester as assistant pastor, will have charge of the churches at Fairfax Courthouse and Falls church.

PAPAL ECONOMY.

REDUCTION OF EXPENSES AT THE VATICAN SOUGHT.

Pope Leo's Generosity-The Deman Upon His Holiness-Papal Resources-The Peter's-Pence Fund.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)
Ross. May 25.—The Pope is taking steps to secure greater economy of expenditure at the Vatican. He has appointed a commission consisting of three cardinals charged to do their numost to effect a reduction in expenses. It is believed to be the first time since Sixtus V. that a Pope has interfered in the constitutions of the congregations of Rome. From a financial point of view the proposed reductions in expenses are probably due to the increased demands upon the Holy See. The misery in Italy and the effects of the national bankruptcy on the funds of the Vatican have considerably augmented extraordinary expenses. Everybody asks money of the Pope. Then, again, the work of the Holy See is continually increasing. Leo XIII. has created at Rome, and especially in the mission fields, special undertakings, which require much money. The crusade against slavery has absorbed considerable sums. The Pope is lavish in his endowments of schools, the sciences, and benevolent agencies. Leo XIII. is not so liberal to persons as was Pius IX., but to causes of general interest his generosity borders on prodigality.

THE POPE'S RESOURCE!

It is impossible to estimate now how much the Pope gives privately. His resources are difficult to enumerate. Even the administrators of St. Peter's Pence itself do not know the exact receipts and expenditures of the Pope, because Leo XIII, receives directly the greatest sums from the Bishops and the laity. Part of this money is devoted to extraordinary work and expenses and part rose stowards increasing the secret fund reserved for future needs. Imitating Sixtus V., Leo XIII, wishes to leave to his successor a testro positive for exceptional circumstances, as war, exile, or penury. It is asserted that this fund has absorbed thirty million frances of the sums received by him on the occasion of his Sacerdotal Jubilee in 1837.

St. Peter's Pence. THE POPE'S RESOURCES. ST. PETER'S PENCE.

The average amount received annually by the Pope in St. Peter's Pence is between eight and nine million francs. There has been some falling off in the amount received from France, due, as it is thought at the Vatican, to the educational laws, which weigh heavily on the French people. But this has been more than counterbalanced by the increase of contributions from many other countries. The United States now contributes more than France to this fund, sending annually $200,000. Belgium comes next after France, then Holland, Spain, Germany, and last of all, Italy.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT AID NOT ACCEPTABLE. It seems highly improbable that the Pope will ever accept the sum assured him by the Italian Government in the guarantee law, as it would be an admission of dependence. The system of St. Peter's Pence has become a permanent institution and promises to be sufficient for all Papal needs.

Petersburg not being a port of entry or delivery in the regular legal sense gets no credit for her exports, although the city is one of the largest exporters of tobacco in the United States. The figures are put in with those of other ports, or at least are not separately displayed in the monthly, quarterly, or annual reports made by the Bureau of Statistics.

THE NATURAL PORT.

Norfolk's large showing is accounted for by the fact that it is the natural port for large sections in both Virginia and North Carolina. Newport News, it will be observed, makes a highly creditable showing in the value of her exports.

Richmond holds up pretty well also, although there is a slight falling off in value of exports for theten months of 1891 as, compared with same period in 1890. This will in all probability be more than made up for the remaining four months of the year. the year. POSTMASTERS.
